Ref 113-17-1

Adverting to Government order No. 940-58/M1.149-14-21 dated the 31st July 1916 anent the subject of appointment of the proceeds from the tollgates near Municipal Towns between the local bodies concerned, and stating that each case will be disposed of on its own merits, I have the honour to forward herewith copies of resolutions of the Hassan Town Municipal Council, and the District Board, in the matter and to state that the communication from the President, Hassan Town Municipal Council, in the matter of a moiety of income from the District Fund Tollgate on the Arsikere Road being paid to the Hassan Municipality, was placed before the District Board at their Meeting held on the 26th September 1917 and a resolution was passed to the effect that ½ of the income may be paid to the Hassan Municipality. As five roads going to 5 Talukas pass through the limits of the Hassan Municipality, the demand is a just one and accordingly the District Board have agreed to contribute one fourth of the income from the tollbar.

I therefore request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to the payment of Rs.2000/- which is one fourth of the income from the District Fund tollgate on the Arsikere Road during the current year, to the Hassan Municipality.

I have the honour to be
